About Sean and his role

What's the main focus of your role as Participation Officer?

To help clubs and schools in the promotion of GAA activities.

How do you engage new players, schools, and communities with Gaelic Games?

By introducing fun and practical GAA activity games and drills into the relevant environment.

What do you enjoy most about working with young people and new participants?

The enthusiasm they bring to the area we are working in.

What's been the most rewarding project or initiative you've been involved in?

Introducing relevant workshops and mentoring club coaches in relevant clubs.

How do you measure the impact of your work in growing participation?

Very important as its the key to proper promotion of our games.

What's your favourite memory or moment from your time working in GAA so far?

Watching our young players developing skills over time.

What motivates you to keep promoting Gaelic Games every day?

It's part of my family background i come from a very active GAA family my father before me was a Player, a Coach and Mentor.

What do you love most about the GAA and what it brings to communities?

Its ability to unite a community in good and bad times through participation in sport.
